Registered Massage Therapist Charlottetown - Somebody who works with energy fields surrounding the human body or animal is known as an energy healer. The fields of energy which surround living things have been called chakra energy, aura body, chi, qi, or the energy body. To an energy healer, the name is not as vital as the effects of working with it.

Healing with energy fields is an important component to whichever holistic healing plan since the energy fields surrounding our human body and the other objects surrounding us are closely associated to our overall health. Energy work is connected with the gateway of the Spirit. The Body Gateway is connected with physical healing, the Mind Gateway is connected to emotional and mental healing and the Spirit Gateway is linked with energy healing.

Numerous energy healers believe that nearly all dis-ease originates from blockages of energy and could be healed by releasing blocked energy inside the body. Like for instance, respiratory ailments could feature a blockage of energy around the lungs. After an energy healer unblocks that area, your respiratory concerns should disappear or lessen.

Depending on the system they work with, energy healers function in different ways. The fundamentals are as follows: exorcising negative fields, unblocking, re-routing and charging with light. Your local metaphysical store or spiritual bookstore might be able to put you in touch with an energy healer if you feel this might be for you.
