The physical body is a resonating matrix of information within the biological field. According to Matrix energetics philosophy, the patterns within the resonating matrix may become altered from emotional or physical injury. These interruptions can cause ingrained habits or perceptions that could block a person from obtaining a state of prosperity, health, happiness and other positive circumstances. Matrix Energetics works to get rid of blockages, transfer these ingrained patterns and alter core beliefs in order to allow the person to attain their goals so as create the sort of life and quality of life preferred.

Practitioners of Matrix Energetics believe that the limitations are the source of a patient's issues and that the healing system of Matrix Energetics can immediately remove these restrictions. This healing system is thought to remove the causes of both chronic and temporary concerns like fibromyalgia, emotional trauma, headaches, muscle spasms and scoliosis amongst others.

The system of Matrix Energetics is a stand alone healing practice although several practitioners utilize it in order to improve other healing techniques. A single session with a Matrix Energetics practitioner can alter the belief system of the client and could change his or her beliefs concerning the structure of reality, the nature of disease and the healing process. Commonly, recipients could feel a wave pass throughout their bodies since their previous view of realism is changed and this is where the Matrix Energetics system enters into the realm of quantum physics.

At the quantum level, time and space are not part of reality. The consciousness of a person, according to the quantum theory, could have an effect on how subatomic particles behave. As the universe is interconnected with quanta, or tiny wave particles of information, that could be transferred at a rate faster than the speed of light, these quanta could appear all over simultaneously and likewise move backward or forward in time. A person's consciousness could have an effect on these quanta to change emotions and physical matter. This information and these views have been integrated into the Matrix Energetics treatments and are accountable for the changes which occur on the cellular level in the client.
